

Malaysia was my second exchange from part of UGTO. I was already familiar with the experience of living in a new country and being far from home; which I love by the way.

What I didn't have, was any idea about how Malaysia an Asia in general where like. I knew I wanted to come but I had no idea why. Well, everything happens for a reason. I couldn't be more thankful for this opportunity that UG gave me again. Even though it was only for one semester because of the scholarship, still, I was able to enjoy what I had to enjoy and I was able to live what was meant to be.

You can never really express what you lived and learned when you do an exchange, but these are some examples:
