

Resumen Biografía

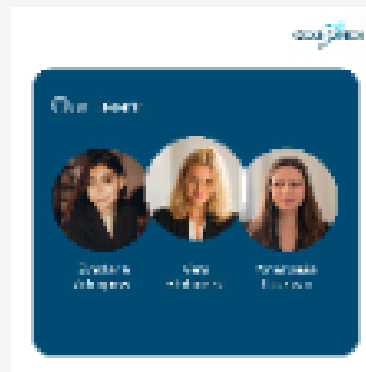

Datos generales

Svetlana Arkhipova , rusa

Educación

Is a project manager and PR specialist with more than five years of experience in media, education, communications, and team leadership. She studied Advertising and Public Relations and English Language Teaching at Yakovlev Chuvash State Pedagogical University and participated in the YEAR Program in the United States. She has managed educational projects and multidisciplinary teams, worked in PR and student development at MEPhI, and currently works as a project manager at the School of Creative and Strategic Thinking IKRA. She has been passionate about space exploration since childhood and is particularly interested in applying her communication and project-management expertise to the space industry..

Líneas de investigación

Fotografía del Ponente